

EACDG Newsflash August 2013

The Newsletter of the East Anglian Carriage Driving Group Ltd for members and friends

Come to Blandings—

31 August-1 September

Entries are still open if you'd like to join us at Blandings Farm, Chippenham, near Newmarket.

Louise and Kim Andreasen are organising a great event at their purpose-built carriage driving centre which has beautifully maintained arenas and permanent obstacles. There's room for a few more entries so get your entry in now! (If you want a taste of a three-phase event but can't do the whole thing, you can drive dressage and cones only on Saturday—and you'd be welcome to come and help or watch on Sunday.)

New opportunities... 2014

Every year at the East Anglian AGM we elect a committee to run the club and this year offers a great opportunity for new people to join in and contribute to the sport with new ideas and fresh energy.

Owing to increased other workload and the growing demands of other commitments, several committee members are stepping down at the end of this season: Tony Clarke (immediately); Jacqui Clarke, Treasurer; Fiona Powell, Secretary, and Mike Watts, Chairman. This is an opportunity for you to join a very positive and cooperative group of people running great events.

Jacqui, Fiona and Mike - as well as Zoe, Dan, Ben and Nina who are staying in office - are all happy to discuss their roles with you. We can provide advice, information and any training required if you would like to know more about joining in for 2014. It would be ideal if you could step up and shadow us before the end of this season.

The EACDG has built a reputation for running some of the best events in the country thanks to enthusiastic and loyal members, supporters and helpers. Please consider how you can help—in any way—and get in touch with us now! Fiona Powell, 01473 735732 or Mike Watts, 01473 735050
